

Plan Fund-Raising For Injured Jailer

INVITATIONAL GOLF TOURNAMENT AT PASS ISLES THIS WEEKEND

On November 15 and 16, 1958, the Pass Christian Golf Club will hold its fourth annual Invitational Golf Tournament. This is the Gulf Coast's newest golf course and one of the best. In the short space of five years Alex Cunningham, as Pro, has made a course to be proud of and one you will enjoy playing. While actually not being too difficult, the 3315 yard course is a challenge to all golfers. The present course record is 69, held jointly by R. D. "Dick" Merritt, our club champion and L. S. (Roy) Capehart.

Although tournament play will be only one day, Sunday, November 16th, the course will be open for all who have registered and want a practice round. Following this play on Saturday there will be one of the club's Barbecue Suppers—old fashioned pit barbecue which has become a club specialty.

The tournament will be play in five classes for men and four for women. All certified handicaps and entry fees should be in by November 13, 1958.

For men:
Class A—Handicap 11 and under
Class B—12 to 17
Class C—18 to 24
Class D—from 25 up
Senior—40 years and over (9 holes) 45 Handicap

For women:
Class A—Handicap 12 and under
Class B—13 to 19
Class C—20 to 26
Class D—from 27 up (9 holes)

There will be many valuable prizes in all classes. Players are eligible for one prize only.

The entry fee of $7.50 entitles you to all activities (including barbecue at the Club both Saturday and Sunday. The price of the barbecue for non-golfers is $2.00. Please make check payable to the Pass Christian Golf Club and mail to P. O. Box 434, Pass Christian, Mississippi.

Plan of the Tony Bourgeois Fund Committee has been endorsed by public officials of the county and cities of Bay St. Louis and Waveland.

The purpose of the committee is to raise funds to assist in defraying hospital expenses incurred by Deputy Sheriff Tony Bourgeois who has been confined to Hotel Dien in New Orleans for more than three weeks.

Mr. Bourgeois was seriously injured by two prisoners in a jail break October 23, in the performance of his duty as night jailer.

The officers who endorsed the plan stated since there are no provisions for funds to defray hospital expenses and the expense incurred for such a period of time in a hospital will be a financial burden on Mr. Bourgeois and his family, this fund raising drive is most deserving of the full cooperation and assistance of the people in our community.

Officials endorsing the plan are: Garfield Ladner, Mayor of Waveland; Cornelius Herlihy, Alderman 2nd Ward, Waveland; Nolan S. Ladner, Justice of the Peace; May-John Scalfie, J. Cyril Glover and W. E. Traub, Commissioners, Bay St. Louis; Jack Lott, Charles Russ, R. G. Hubbard and Johnson Shaw, members of the Hancock County Board of Supervisors; A. C. Mitchell, Clerk of Courts; Sylvan J. Ladner, Sheriff; E. E. Ireland, Supt. of Education and Claiborne J. Ladner, Tax Assessor.

John August Schultheis, 95, Buried At Gainesville November 10, 1 P. M.

Funeral services for John August Schultheis, 95, were held in the chapel of McDonald Funeral Home in Piquette, Miss., Monday, November 10, at 1 p. m. Interment was in Gainesville cemetery, Gainesville, Miss.

Mr. Schultheis was the son of the late Louis Wolf and Jacob Schultheis and husband of the late Ophelia Whitely.

He was the father of Mrs. William Scott of Metairie, La.; Charles A. John, Emile and Alvin Schultheis of Gainesville; Arthur Schultheis, of New Orleans; Mrs. Harold de Latte of Houston, Texas, and the late Jacob O. Schultheis.

Survivors also include seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Supreme Forest WOW Held Meeting Last Week

Mrs. Leslye Brent, District Manager of the W. O. W. Circle, and Mrs. Tyron of Biloxi, were guests of the Supreme Forest Woodmen of the World Circle, 167.

The monthly meeting was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Anna Palmisano, on November 6. Plans were completed for the annual banquet to be held Sunday, November 16 at 6:30 p. m. at the Hotel Reed.

The turkey was awarded to Mrs. Miriam Carbonetto.

Following the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed by the group.

Several days last week in Jackson at the Tax Assessors' Conference.

The biggest surprise of the week was Jos. Benvenuti, Jr. getting his limit of ducks on opening day last week. He failed to get his limit on Coots by three as he thought seven was the limit.

A new feature will be started that will be of interest to all in this column at an early date members. Please watch this column.

Wallace Bontemps, Chairman of Degree Team, announces that a meeting will be scheduled for next week, the exact date to be announced Monday night.

HOUSE PLANNED FOR L. S. U. FANS

A grand and open house is being planned for the LSU fans who attend the November 15 football game in Jackson between the Louisiana State Tigers and the Mississippi State Maroons.

Students, officials, coaches, football players and alumni will be welcomed to Jackson, Nov. 15th by members of the Mississippi State Maroon Club.

An open house has been planned at the Club Room of the King Edward Hotel in Jackson from 2:30 to 4:30 p. m. before the football game at Hinds Memorial Stadium. Special guests at the open house will be visitors from the LSU campus, LSU officials and coaches, as well as alumni from throughout Mississippi.

Benton Cain of Jackson, president of the Mississippi Chapter of the LSU Alumni Federation, has also announced that the 120-piece LSU band will be featured in a parade in downtown Jackson Saturday morning and will present a special halftime show at the football game.

Mississippi officials have also been invited to the open house. Cain added, and all LSU alumni and friends are urged to attend.

Assisting Cain with arrangements are Tom Brown, John Bass, John Squires, Norman Stevens, John Mullin, Kenneth Toler, Morgan Williams and Delbert Oliver.

A capacity crowd of 26,000 is expected at Hinds Stadium to witness the football game between the top-ranked LSU Tigers and the Mississippi State Maroons.

MUNICIPALITIES KEY TO PROGRESS

The municipalities in Mississippi are gearing themselves to industry. More and more families are finding employment in the growing industrial areas of cities and towns. Municipalities have the water supplies, recreation centers, transportation, consolidated schools, churches, housing and the many other features which are sharply appreciated by prospective industrialists. Cities and towns throughout the State have adopted a policy of taking a look at themselves and are participating in hometown development programs designed to make themselves more attractive.

TOURISTS FAVOR SOUTHERN VISITS Recent news compliments and credits the South as a favorite destination of more American travelers than any other region. This makes sharing reading and most of us share the hope that the visiting people had such a good time in Mississippi under welcoming considerations, that they will visit our state again and recommend such trips to others. This South, accounting for almost 80 million of the 231 million trips taken last year, was a favorite destination of the traveler.
